“ I did not know that this international city was going to grab my heart, captivate it at times, and shatter it at others for the nations.

There is something so devastatingly thrilling yet utterly exhausting about the hustle and bustle of life in an urban context. Living in this massive city has taught me to love with urgency but not haste. ”

“ I do not know where to begin to describe my time overseas. I do know that God is moving in ways we cannot even imagine. My time overseas was exhausting yet rewarding. If you want to see God actively moving, you must go and see for yourself. ”
